

FINANCIAL AND COMPLIANCE REVIEW GUIDE FOR THE TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE FOR SPECIALTY CROPS PROGRAM (TASC)

Date of Issue: March 13, 2013

This guide provides instructions for performing a financial and compliance review of a participant in the Technical Assistance for Specialty Crops Program (TASC). It provides guidance for determining whether the participant:

1. Fulfilled the financial and administrative responsibilities of its TASC program agreement;
2. Claimed only documented, authorized and reasonable program expenses; and
3. Reported only documented and eligible program contributions.

The instructions outlined in this guide apply to both the participant's headquarters and overseas offices. Due to the variety of participant organizations, reviewers must use their professional judgment to tailor the guide to meet specific conditions at the review site.

BACKGROUND

TASC uses funds from the U.S. Department of Agriculture's (USDA) Commodity Credit Corporation (CCC) to assist organizations by providing funding for projects which address sanitary, phytosanitary, and technical barriers that prohibit or threaten the export of U.S. specialty crops.

TASC is authorized by Section 3205 of the Farm Security and Rural Investment Act of 2002 and is administered by USDA's Foreign Agricultural Service (FAS). TASC forms a partnership between any U.S. organization, including, but not limited to, U.S. Government agencies, State government agencies, non-profit trade associations, universities, agricultural cooperatives, and private companies to provide funding for the costs of barriers that prohibit or threaten the export of U.S. specialty crops. Under TASC, funds from CCC are used to reimburse the allowed expenditures of program participants conducting approved activities.

Applications for TASC are developed by trade organizations and submitted to FAS separately or as part of the Unified Export Strategy (UES); the process that allows applicants to submit a single, consolidated marketing plan and strategy and request funding under various USDA market development programs. Upon approval of a TASC application, FAS sets an activity funding level and signs a program agreement with the participant.

The TASC regulations (7 CFR part 1487) were revised in 2009. The TASC regulations should be used in conjunction with the participant's authorization letter(s) and program agreement to define activity requirements including activity dates, reimbursement procedures, record and report requirements and activity evaluations.

All participants must keep an itemized list of allowable expenditures incurred during the approved activity and submit them to FAS for reimbursement. All expense claims are subject to review, and participants are held accountable for maintaining proper documentation for the program.

GENERAL REVIEW INSTRUCTIONS

1. Schedule and confirm review dates with the participant.
2. Notify the Agricultural Counselor/Attaché/Trade Officer of the scheduled itinerary for the review of the participant's overseas offices (if applicable).
3. Become familiar with the TASC Regulations (7 CFR part 1487), agreement, TASC Notices, and any other policies and instructions relating to TASC.
4. Review the previous review report and work papers. Note report findings and recommendations and their resolution. During the course of the current review, determine the present status of past findings.

6. Through discussion with the Grants Management marketing specialist and review of correspondence files, determine whether any problems or special conditions exist.
7. Obtain a schedule of advances and reimbursements made by CCC during the review period from the UES database. This schedule can serve as the control worksheet for advances and expenses examined during the review period.

B. ENTRANCE CONFERENCE. Meet with participant officials at the start of the review to discuss the purpose and scope of the review and any potential problem areas.

C. WORK PAPERS. Support all findings with complete and accurate work papers. Each work paper should identify the: (1) purpose or objective for developing and analyzing information in each review area; (2) scope of the review coverage; (3) source of the data reviewed; (4) conclusions as to the facts developed; and (5) recommendations. Cross-reference the work papers to the review report and the review checklist.

D. EXIT CONFERENCE. Meet with participant officials at the end of the review to discuss all findings, recommendations and areas of concern, as well as any additional information the participant needs to provide. Include a summary of the meeting along with a list of attendees in the review work papers.

E. REVIEW REPORT. A review report containing all findings, observations and recommendations resulting from the review must be issued to the participant as soon as possible. The participant will be asked to respond to the report within 60 days after the issue date of the report.
